The Memory Book Discussion Topics:

- ✦ Adventure travel: For the romantic, see Europe before the destruction of two World Wars and through the eyes of a young girl in the fading years of the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy.
- ✦ European history: The Memory Book travels across the Continent, dotted with historical information to help readers understand the last 150 years in Europe.
- ✦ Family: The Memory Book sparked genealogical research for the roots of a young girl living at the turn of the twentieth century. Even without her last name, much could be found with the help of graphologists. The process created a new extended family in our time.
- ✦ Midlife search: The author was 43 at the time she found The Memory Book. She was taking stock of her life, as most people do at that age, and found new insights into her life as she learned about the young girl's.
- ✦ The power of books: a small brown book, like many unassuming artifacts, lead to new findings and opportunities paving a path into historical estuaries.
