

A TOUCHING COLLECTION OF
MEMORIES PAST AND PRESENT

The Memory Book: One Woman's Self-Discovery in the Mist of the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy recounts the discovery of a century-old memory book and how it connects the author to a girl at the turn of the twentieth century as WWI erupts.

“As she retraces Amálka’s life, [Linda Fischer] offers her own very engaging look at modern Hungary, its food, culture and folklore.”

—BOOKLIST

“What a formidable achievement this book represents. There is a palpable pulse—a heartbeat when one reads it. The author’s passion is apparent, and so too, is her knowledge. The research is mightily impressive.”
